There is also a rink listed from Breton.

The Four Events Listed for the Bonspiel are the Northwestern Utilities Event, the Redwell Servicing Event, the Hotel Event and the Eskimo Fracturing Event. The Bonspiel started at 7.00 p.m. Wednesday night and will continue till Sunday evening, February 8. On Saturday evening the Annual Curling Banquet will be held in the Bards Room.

In addition to the Bonspiel Saturday evening will be a very busy night for the Scout Association and all others connected with staging the mammoth Ice Carnival which promises to be bigger and better than ever this year. Much work has gone into all preparations for the Ice Carnival which is expected to draw hundreds of spectators.

A cast of twenty-seven amateur performers from Edmonton will be on hand, along with two professionals, Miss Hanna Fuchs and Mr. Jordan Linney, both of Edmonton. Among the amateurs will be little Brenda McQuig who performed so capably last year.

Drayton Valley will be represented in the Carnival with three skaters, Marlene Ibbottson, Barbara Rempel and Darlene Wigley. Master of Ceremonies will be Max Kinkman, Drayton Valley Mayor, Adrian Meier, will say a few words of welcome to the assembled group. A very entertaining program entitled "What is It?" will be conducted. Program will be on sale at the rink for a very nominal sum of 25 cents, and each program will be numbered which will entitle the holder of the lucky number to win a prize, in addition to the Lucky Draw on the Queen tickets.

Refreshments will be served by the Ladies of the Scout and Cub Auxiliary from a booth set up near the rink, the ladies will also take care of the performers after the show. Reports indicate that ticket sales, each of which represents a vote toward the Queen, are going well. Anyone looking for entertainment for the next two or three days should be able to find it, and first-class entertainment, at that.

LOCAL MEN BUY FORMER DRUMSTICK RESTAURANT BUILDING.

A building changed hands in Drayton Valley recently when Len Barnard, of Drayton Valley Dry-Cleaners and John Ewanic, of Devon Jewelry, purchased the building which had formerly belonged to Ted and Jeanne Reid; the building was the former Drumstick Cafe.

Extensive alterations and remodeling are underway, under the direction of Harry Mastre, to make the building one of the most modern and attractive buildings in the block. The present front will be set back about three feet, and

KEN MASON'S COLUMN:

Everything is in readiness for Thursday's opening of the fifth session of the 13th Alberta Legislature.

And from all indications, it will be a lively session. The government's five-year development plan shapes up as the biggest single issue, and is likely to figure in most of the debates.

Lending added significance is the possibility that this session may be the last of the current Legislature. If the political pundits are right, there'll be a general election sometime in the coming year. And this will undoubtedly mean a heavy increase in the political content of House debates.

Here are some of the highlights of the legislative program the government is expected to introduce:

1. An all-time record provincial budget of around $300,000,000 exceeding the previous record of $285,000,000 set two years ago. The increase will be due almost entirely to greater departmental spending resulting from the five-year plan.

2. Legislation to expand the scope of revitalized Municipal Finance Corporation, authorizing it to lend money for school and hospital as well as municipal capital works.

3. A bill designed to bring nursing home care for chronic patients within the existing provincial hospital insurance plan. The government proposes to build 35 or 40 nursing homes, at a cost of around $15,000,000.

4. Introduction of government-guaranteed farm home improvement loans. The government will guarantee 50 per cent of interest and principal on loans to a maximum of $2,000.

5. Amendments to the Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act, increasing speed limits to 65 m.p.h. on four-lane highways and divided highways.

6. Establishment of a separate department of labor, and appointment of a minister to head it.

7. A bill to launch an expanded scholarship program, which will cost more than $1,000,000 a year and guarantee every deserving student a university education.

There also will be budget appropriations to launch the first "special project" of the five-year plan -- the building of 34 homes for the aged throughout the province at an estimated cost of $10,000,000.

Traditional pomp and ceremony was to mark Thursday's opening. A 15-gun vice-regal salute was to boom out across the North Saskatchewan River valley as Lieutenant-Governor Bowlen arrived to open the session and read the Speech from the Throne giving the usual sketchy outline of the government's legislative program.

On Friday, Dr. W.M. Cross, former health minister, will move the reply to the governor's speech. It will be seconded by George Bell, Social Credit MLA for Griesbach.

Calgary, will make his debut as newly-elected Liberal party leader and launch the Throne Speech debate.

There'll be another new party leader in the House this time. He is W.J.C. (GAM) Kirby, and Deer, elected last fall to head the Progressive Conservative Party in Alberta.

The House also will receive a new member during the session. The winner of the bye-election slated for Olds riding on Feb. 9 will have to be sworn in and take his seat after the session opens -- probably during second or third week.

Two important reports are expected to be submitted while the House is in session. One will be the report of the Cameron Royal Commission, which has been making the most exhaustive study to date of the Alberta education system.

The other is coming from the government committee set up to study Alberta's Hutterite colony problem and the Communal Property Act which restricts Hutterite land holdings. This one can be expected to cause plenty of controversy.

Finally, there's a chance that the session will end with the calling of a snap election. Some observers say that if the Opposition acts tough and tries to throw its weight around this session, Premier Manning may feel it would be good tactics to the public immediately and seek a new mandate on the strength of his five-year plan.

On the other hand, some feel autumn is a more likely time for an election. Planning for the forthcoming royal visit might make it difficult to hold a spring election, and visit itself in the summer might rule out a July or August election.

We may have a better idea toward the end of March when the session ends.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT.

BY: Danita Boling.

If I seem to get carried away with sentiment this week it is because we have an exciting day in February and I thought it might be wise to give it advance publicity. Valentine's Day, February 14th, is just a bit over a week ahead so it is the proper time to start dropping gentle hints in the path of our favorite male companion. Yes, I know that men frown on such things as hearts and flowers but we girls certainly like to get a bit of recognition on the Day of Hearts. We aren't greedy, but a card or a box of candy, especially one of those red satin hearts, just put us on top of the world. I have never understood why men always shy away from sentimental gestures and have such a poor memory for remembering special dates. Yet men have always been the composers and writers of beautiful songs and poems and they can write pages about the "Moon in June" or "Roses in Picardy". For instance, here is what I consider an outstanding poem and it was written by a man, too!

Hold fast your dreams!
Within your heart
Keep one still, secret spot
Where dreams may go,
And, sheltered so,
May thrive and grow,
Where doubts and fear are not.
O, keep a place apart,
Within your heart,
For little dreams to go!

Now isn't that good advice? It was not only written by a man but it was sent to us by a very elderly Danish gentleman that we admire very much and who has lived long enough to know, and admit, that one's life is better and fuller with a few dreams. And so it is with Love and Romance and we shouldn't be so timid about recognizing it.

So this comes in plenty of time to send you looking for that choice for Valentines Day. Don't say I didn't warn you!

May I say, "Welcome Home", to our little neighbor boy, Johnny Balash? Johnny had to go to an Edmonton Hospital just a few days before Christmas and our neighborhood was saddened by his absence, but he is able to be home again and he is very determined that before long he will be riding the nice new sled that Santa Claus brought him. We are all so glad you are home, Johnny! We have missed you very much.

As often happens, there is so much going on this week and that it is almost impossible to do everything we would like to do. There is a Curling Bonspiel, Oil Wives Semi-Formal Dance, and the Ice Carnival. Let's Crusade for a clearing house where clubs and organizations can clear their activity dates! Be sure to have all the fun you can have this week and but don't forget to vote for the Ice Carnival Queen and to participate in the Carnival. It is sponsored by the Boy Scouts and all the proceeds go to help that very fine group of boys. The Scout Mothers have been working like beavers and will be serving some fine home cooked food to the skaters at the Scout Hall and they will also be selling hot dogs at the rink. (Cont'd next column)

Food for Thought (cont'd)

This weeks recipe should be a fine one for you ladies to use if you can't think of anything else you would rather give to that "man of yours" on February 14th. Make him a batch of this nice creamy fudge and if it doesn't make him agree to be your Valentine then he is hopelessly!

4 cups Sugar	1 large can milk
1 lb. margarine	3 pkgs chocolate chips
2 cups nut meats	1 pint jar marshmallows
2 teaspoon vanilla	1 pint jar marshmallows

Melt margarine, add sugar and milk and bring to a boil. Boil 6 minutes only. Take off heat and add chocolate chips, nuts, marshmallows whip and vanilla. Pour into 2 greased pans, place in refrigerator overnight. Makes about 5 lbs. Yummy!

"A Great Love May go with a little gift".
Theobrites.

DRAYTON VALLEY GIRL VISITS MANY COUNTRIES.

As usually as the most of we stuck-in-the-mud, stay-at-homes would go downtown to the store or cafe or theatre, Miss Audrey Deby, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.J. Deby, left Drayton Valley in November of 1956 to visit such far away spots as the Union of South Africa, the West Coast of Africa, London, Brussels, Athens Ankara and Moscow.

As a rule the over-the-water travel was done by boat; in the case of her trip from London South Africa it was by Union Castle. After spending the winter of 1956-57 in South Africa (winter to us in Drayton Valley, summer to the folks in South Africa) Miss Deby came up the West Coast by coastal ship and spent six weeks at it, since an extremely wet, wet spell of weather delayed boat loadings and unloadings at many ports.

Arriving back in England during the summer of 1957 Audrey found work in a coffee bar, in tea-swilling England. According to reports the Italians have invented a new coffee making machine which makes coffee by forcing live steam through freshly ground coffee. Apparently, the resulting aromatic and delectable beverage has made serious inroads into the tea-drinking habits of the sturdy island beef-eaters. Miss Deby contributed to the national decline in Tea-Drinking by operating one of the Espresso Coffee Making Machines in a Coffee Bar.

While in S.A. also, to help keep the South Africa version of the Wolf-Away-from-the-Door Audrey worked in an Employment Bureau, which, by the way, as they are in many of the States, in England, and elsewhere, are run by private enterprise and not by the government.

Between cups of Espresso Coffee Audrey found time to revisit Scotland, Ireland and Wales, which she had visited on her former trip to England a couple of years previously. She remained in London from the fall of 1957 till early summer of 1958 when she left on a trip which took her through Italy, Jugoslavia, (continued inside)

Greece and Turkey. Returning to London she then went back across the Channel to Belgium to visit the World's Fair there. She states that the Belgian people have one of the highest standards of living on the continent.

Returning again to London Audrey then obtained her visa for a trip to Russia, which she made via boat to Copenhagen, Denmark and then into the Baltic sea to a Russian ship to Leningrad, then by train to Moscow. Miss Deby found the Russian people friendly, many of them able to speak English, and all of them eager to learn other languages. Which might make us wonder how many people there are in this country not of Russian origin, who are able to speak Russian, or, perhaps, why Russian is not taught in our high schools.

Returning to England Audrey took the S.S. United States, one of the few aluminum ships sailing the seven seas, to New York. After a brief stay in New York and Ontario she returned to Drayton Valley and home. After having been gone for two years and two months, she arrived home just in time for Christmas.

Among her many other souvenirs Audrey returned home with a delightful British accent, which is, unfortunately, fast fading away. She states she is now looking for a job to recoup her shattered fortunes.

DRAYTON VALLEY HIGHLIGHTS By: Edith Daby.

The Anglican W.A. is holding a pan cake supper on Throve Tuesday, February 10th. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. Leckie and Mrs. Davies went to Edmonton on Wednesday to attend the Annual Anglican W.A. Convention.

Mrs. Mallac is in the Royal Alexandra Hospital recovering from an operation.

Miss Dolly Schulte's father passed away in Edison on Friday. He had been in poor health for some time.

Miss Bernice Free spent the weekend at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Free. Bernice is a hostess in an Edmonton Club.

The Reverend Leslie Corness, well known to many Drayton Valley people, fell ill at his post on Frobiisher Bay and had to be brought to hospital in Edmonton. It is very doubtful that his frail health will permit him to resume his work in the North.

Charles Johnson was called home to Endover, New Brunswick, on Friday by the sudden death of his father. Charles' mother and seven brothers and sisters survive.

Mrs. Francis Law is a patient in the General Hospital. She expects to have an operation soon.

Kenneth MacKessie has resigned his position in the Liquor Store and is working for J. & L.

At a recent meeting of the Drayton Valley Hospital Board Mrs. G. Wollschlaeger and Mrs. A. Giddings, acting for Mrs. J.J. Wilkes and Mrs. M. Somers, sisters of the late James Trackwell, a pioneer of the Violet Grove District, turned over to the board a substantial sum of money to be used in furnishing the children's ward in the hospital.

One donor, who reside in the United States, and were unable to be present personally, expressed through Mrs. Wollschlaeger and Mrs. Giddings, a desire to perpetuate their brother's memory in this very fitting manner.

Mr. Trackwell, as his many friends in this district know so well, was keenly interested in the children of the community.

The Annual World Day of Prayer will be held in the United Church on Friday, February 13, 1959, at 2 p.m. Everyone is welcome to attend.

a very attractive facing brick will be put at the front entrance.

The building will be separated by a partition with Devon Jewelry in one section and the dry-cleaners on the other. The front will be of glass and stainless steel.

LODGEPOLE PHONE SERVICE.

Alberta Government Telephone announced recently that it was hoped telephone service would be in operation in Lodgepole by about the middle of March.

Tests showed that an ordinary circuit telephone system would not work in the Lodgepole area on account of power line interference, so a carrier system was planned for the area, and equipment for the system was on order.

TAXI SERVICE FOR DRAYTON VALLEY.

A much-needed taxi service was inaugurated recently by Rene Coutu, who had previously been operating a towing service. Mr. Coutu has been in the district for several years, as he came in to work in the oilfield at the beginning of the boom here. The office is also a sub-station for Seona Cleaners. Mrs. Carmichael is in charge of the dry-cleaning and laundry service.

NEW ACCOUNTING SERVICE OPENS.

"It's Lucky" said Al Gottschalk, who recently opened an accounting service in Insurance Building. The reason Al. said that was as he told of the time, in August 1952, when he went to work one Thursday morning, and by the next day, Friday, he had contracted Polio and was in an iron lung in University Hospital in Edmonton.

He spent 6 1/2 months in the iron lung, and at one time it was thought he would be bedridden the rest of his life. But he came out, and, though confined to a wheel chair, he has been able to work for the past five years, and has now opened his own business here.

HERE AND THERE.

Leaving Drayton Valley for Ontario to visit his mother and father for a couple of weeks is Mike Dale, of Dale's Shopping Centre.

Peter Masoleas, of the White Bull Cafe, was in the U.S. for a few weeks recently. In both Chicago and Cleveland where he visited folks had heard of Drayton Valley. Let's all stick out our chests!

Guy Beland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beland, of Drayton Valley, who joined the Navy about a year ago, is now on a cruise down the West Coast, through the Panama Canal and back up north to Halifax. Guy has finished his basic training and is now a p.o.

Bennett Brothers recently sent a plane load of men from this area to Swan Hills. Reports indicate that Danny Hynes and John Brooks were

MANY EVENTS IN DRAYTON VALLEY OVER WEEKEND.

Some idea of the amount of people in this area can be gained from the number of events which were staged in Drayton Valley over the past weekend, which were all well-attended. Starting on Thursday, February 26th, was Drayton Valley's Second Annual Bonspiel, which was an unusually successful affair, according to all who participated in it. On Friday evening was the Oil Wives Semi-Formal Dance in the Gaudium Room, which is also rated very highly for entertainment value. On Saturday evening there were three events going on at once.... The Bonspiel Banquet, the Fourth Annual Ice Carnival and a Square Dance.... and all were very well attended.

In the Bonspiel there were four events, No. 1 was the Northwesters Utilities Event; No. 2, the Hotel Event; No. 3, the Redwell Fracturing Event; and No. 4, the Redwell Servicing Event. Winner of the trophy in No. 1 Event was a rink from Sedgewick, skipped by Anderson. This rink turned in a magnificent performance throughout the entire bonspiel. In fact the bonspiel was characterized by some unusually good curling by most of the rinks present.

In No. 2 Event winner of the trophy was the Barwick rink, with Reglin (2), Sawatzky (3) and Casey (4).

No. 3, event winner of the trophy was Rose rink, with the other three rinks in the following order: MacLean (2), Murray (3) and Harrington (4).

No. 4 Event winner of the trophy was the Lewis rink, with McGladrie (2), Thompson (3) and Impy (4).

In each of the various Events the group for which the award was named had donated the beautiful trophies which were put up as first prize, along with other prizes that were put up by various other firms in this area. Donators of first prize in the No. 1 Event was the Curling Club, 4 liquor cabinets; second prize, 4 electric drills, was donated by Goliad Oil and Gas; 3rd prize, 4 ice crushers, was donated by Anderson Oil Transport, and 4th prize, pen and pencil sets, was donated by McFarland Lumber Wards Ltd.

In the second event Tantula sets were donated by Drayton Hardware and Drayton Valley Motors as first prize; Barbecue Garden Grills were donated by Stewart Motors and the Curling Club; as second prize, camera outfits, as third prize were donated by the Dry Goods Store and the Curling Club and fourth prize, travel-alarms, was donated by A. Lloyd and the Curling Club.

In third event camera outfits were donated by Eskimo Fracturing for 1st prize; camp stoves were donated by the Curling Club as 2nd prize; radar lites, 3rd prize, were donated by Imperial Lumber, and 4 picnic jugs were donated by Crown Lumber as 4th prize.

Fourth event 1st prize was curling sweaters donated by Redwell Servicing Co. 2nd prize was club bags donated by W. Rose; 3rd prize was car robes, donated by A. Meier and H.O. Williamson.

The Bonspiel closed Sunday evening with all in agreement that it had been a highly successful event, so far as interest and entertainment were concerned.

SHARON WOODS CROWNED QUEEN OF ICE CARNIVAL.

In spite of the very cold evening a bang up crowd turned out to witness the Fourth Annual Drayton Valley Ice Carnival. Ticket sales were very good for the choice of who would preside over the Ice Carnival as 1959 Queen. Winner of that honor was Pembina Pipe Lines' choice, Miss Sharon Woods.

Winners of the Dress Parade were Tim Leroy, Scarlett Repka, Marcelle Dixon and Jo-Anne McLean. The Scout Guard of Honor was composed of eleven boys; Ken McMorris, David Joyce, Bill Urchishyn, Steve Seranas, Gerald Winhons, Roger Berlinguette, Jack Kane, Chuck Byers, Rusty Mohn and Jim McManus.

The Local performers, Barbara Rempel, Marlene Tibbott and Darlene Wigley were very good and show much promise for future development. Edmonton sent us a wonderful representation, including two professionals, Miss Hanna Fuchs and Mr. Gordon Linney. Little Linda McQuig, who was a headliner last year, was unable to come this year because of another skating engagement. A comedy skit on the ice, "Hiking Old Bossie" put on by local talent was good for several laughs from the crowd.

After the performance the Scout and Cub Mothers Auxiliary put on a wonderful meal for the performers, members of the Scout Association, and others. M.C.'ing the dinner was Anders Anderson who introduced various visiting members of the Edmonton Skating Club, members of the Boy Scout executive, and other guests.

Entire proceeds of the Ice Carnival go toward Scouting activities in Drayton Valley. Last year 11 boys were sent to camp with the help of the Ice Carnival funds.
